'We'll repeat our Gujarat experiment'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

AMRITSAR, SEPTEMBER 3: Vsihwa Hindu Parishad international working president Ashok Singhal today termed Gujarat as a "successful experiment"—and warned that it would be repeated all over India.

Singhal, in Amritsar to inaugurate a physiotherapy centre at the Shivala Bhaian temple, said, "Godhra happened on February 27 and the next day, 50 lakh Hindus were on the streets. We were successful in our experiment of raising Hindu consciousness, which will be repeated all over the country now."

Singhal also spoke glowingly of how whole villages had been "emptied of Islam", and how whole communities of Muslims had been dispatched to refugee camps. This was a victory for Hindu society, he added, a first for the religion. "People say I praise Gujarat. Yes I do," he told an appreciative, but modest, audience.

Singhal also took potshots at the NDA Government, saying it hadn't helped the Hindu cause. The Ram temple would be built at the same place in Ayodhya, he stated. "We have been able to raise consciousness within the Hindu community, though it's unfortunate that the temple hasn't been built till now."
