SERVICE TO HUMANITY IS SERVICE TO GOD

Update on World Hindu Council (VHPA) of America Relief efforts

In the wake of the worst earthquake in 50 years, the largest Hindu organization in North America, World Hindu Council - America has wire transferred $50,000.00 for immediate rescue and relief efforts.

To serve the victims of the earthquake, which has resulted in a colossal loss of lives and property, several members of VHPA Governing council are personally in Gujarat. Dr. Mihir Meghani, a national Governing Council member and (AP news - Times Of India), a physician specializing in rendering emergency services initially intended to attend Kumbha Mela. Instead, he went to work in Gujarat. The relief work is being approached in two phases. First, meeting the immediate needs in short term and second is, long term rehabilitation.

VHP along with several sister organizations started rescue and relief operation immediately on the morning of 26 January 2001. Currently, the VHP work has been covering all the affected areas of Gujarat. The following provides a brief overview of the work performed by the VHP in different areas on Jan 31.

1. Bhachau Centre

- A. 7 relief work teams consisting of 58 doctors treated patients in Bhachau and nearby villages with help of 4 Ambulance vans
- B. 15 more dead bodies cremated
- C. 50 persons including 2 children rescued alive in last
